Het pijnstillimperium Jan 02 2021 'Een non-fictie-tegenhanger van de Great American Novel.' ..... NRC De naam Sackler prijkt groots op de muren van het Louvre, het Metropolitan Museum of Art, Oxford en Harvard University. De familie staat bekend om de omvangrijke donaties aan kunst en wetenschap. De bron van het familiefortuin was jarenlang onbekend, totdat uitkwam dat de Sacklers miljarden verdienden aan het produceren en op de markt brengen van de pijnstiller OxyContin. Dit verslavende medicijn was de aanjager van de wereldwijde opiatencrisis die honderdduizenden mensen fataal werd. In dit literaire meesterwerk onthult Patrick Radden Keefe de schokkende waarheid die schuilgaat achter een van de rijkste en meest gesloten families ter wereld. Het pijnstillimperium is het verhaal van de opkomst en de val van een Amerikaanse dynastie, en een aanklacht tegen de hebzucht van de superrijken in de eenentwintigste eeuw. 'Als er een non-fictie-tegenhanger zou bestaan van de Great American Novel dan zou dit boek daar een geslaagd voorbeeld van zijn. [...] een knap staaltje onderzoeksjournalistiek.' in NRC Handelsblad 'Dit boek zal je bloed doen koken [...] Een vernietigend portret van een familie die door hebzucht gedreven wordt en die weigert ook maar een greintje verantwoordelijkheid te nemen voor wat zij teweeg heeft gebracht.' John Carreyrou, auteur van Bad Blood, in The New York Times

The book of gifts Feb 27 2023 "This work provides a Syriac text and English translation of writings on ascetical life by Subhalarman, early seventh-century metropolitan of Beth Seloq, now Kirkuk in Iraq. He was a contemporary of Catholicos Gregory I, of the monastic reformer Babai the Great, and of the writer Barhadbesabba. The Syriac material, found in British Library Oriental Manuscript 6714, is there passed off as a single work, but is an editorial collection of five pieces on asceticism and one on the Last Things. This last is similar to, possibly the same as, a piece known elsewhere as being by Babai the Great. Subhalarman's approach is biblically based, perceptive and witty. His theme is that gifts of the virtues come to those who, by conquering passions and combatting demons, live so as to acquire what is mediated through Old and New Testament ascetics and their successors from their Lord and perfecter, the Messiah." - COPAC.

De wilde gave Aug 21 2022 Deze door PEN/USA bekroonde roman bewijst nogmaals Le Guins meesterschap. Ze schrijft over universele vragen: Welke gaven heb ik? Wat ben ik verplicht aan familietradities? Kan ik mijn eigen pad kiezen? Een opwindend, ontroerend verhaal dat prachtig poëtisch tot leven komt. De bewoners van de Oplanden zijn als hun land: fel, trots en hard. Ze zijn arm, maar hun gaven zijn kostbaar. Sommigen kunnen - met één blik, gebaar of woord - dieren roepen, vuur maken of land verplaatsen. Anderen kunnen ledematen verwingen, een geest onderwerpen, een slopende ziekte geven. Twee jeugdvrienden besluiten hun gave niet te gebruiken. Het meisje Gry wil geen dieren naar de slacht roepen. Orrec draagt een blinddoek om te voorkomen dat zijn ogen en zijn woede doden. Maar kun je je eigen weg gaan als je gave bepaalt wie je bent? Ursula Le Guin (1929) is een van de grootste sf- en fantasy-auteurs. Haar Aardzee-cyclus en romans als De linkerhand van het duister zijn klassiekers. Onder haar bekroningen bevinden zich de National Book Award en de Pushcart Prize. In 2000 verleende de Library of Congress haar de Living Legends Award.

Taylor's Gift Mar 04 2021 In March 2010, thirteen-year-old Taylor Storch's life was tragically cut short by a skiing accident. With only a few minutes to consider their options, her grieving family made the life-changing decision to donate her organs. Knowing Taylor's caring spirit, they were sure this was what she would have wanted. Over the course of the next two years, Tara and Todd Storch connected with four of the five people who now live because of Taylor's gift. And through these encounters, the Storches have discovered unexpected blessings that are changing countless lives. Now Tara and Todd share their inspiring story, shining a light at the end of the tunnel for those enduring the suffering of losing a loved one. Through the stories of the donor recipients, readers will discover hope in the midst of pain. Honest with their struggles, the Storches show readers that life is a gift and our response to grief is a choice. They also speak with a clear voice about the importance and the blessing of being an organ donor, telling the inspiring story of the creation of Taylor's Gift Foundation and its goals to raise awareness of the need for organ donation, to re-gift life, renew health, and restore families. They are changing the conversation around the globe that organ donation is not about death--it's about life! Foreword by Max Lucado.

Gifts of Sight Jul 28 2020 "We look to memoirs for guidance, instruction from the lives of others, cautionary tales perhaps and, if we're lucky, inspiration. If we also get a clear view of abundant humanity, we count it as a bonus. Gifts of Sight is that kind of rare memoir. With skill, irony toward himself, and a clear and moral love of his fellow-man, Bruce Shields has written a book that is in part the account of an 'eye doctor,' in part a meditation on the courage of his patients, and in great part a metaphor for Life itself. Gifts of Sight, meditative and Chekhovian, is already a classic as it leaves the author's pen; it should become perceived as one of the great 'quiet' American tales, in which a concerned and thoughtful doctor addresses the word vision in all its meanings." —Frank Delaney New York Times bestselling author of Ireland

Gifts in the Age of Empire Dec 13 2021 Explores the Safavid and Ottoman empires through the lens of gifts. When the Safavid dynasty, founded in 1501, built a state that championed Iranian identity and Twelver Shi'ism, it prompted the more established Ottoman Empire to align itself definitively with Sunni legalism. The political, religious, and military conflicts that arose have since been widely studied, but little attention has been paid to their diplomatic relationship. Sinem Arcak Casale here sets out to explore these two major Muslim empires through a surprising lens: gifts. Countless treasures—such as intricate carpets, gilded silver cups, and ivory-tusk knives—flowed from the Safavid to the Ottoman Empire throughout the sixteenth century. While only a handful now survive, records of these gifts exist in court chronicles, treasury records, poems, epistolary documents, ambassadorial reports, and travel narratives. Tracing this elaborate archive, Casale treats gifts as representative of the complicated Ottoman-Safavid coexistence, demonstrating how their rivalry was shaped as much by culture and aesthetics as it was by religious or military conflict. Gifts in the Age of Empire explores how gifts were no mere accessories to diplomacy but functioned as a mechanism of competitive interaction between these early modern Muslim courts.

Harlem Shuffle Feb 15 2022 De onderwereld van Harlem in de jaren '60 frustreert de ambities van een (deels) keurige meubelverkooper in dit verhaal vol roofovervallen, afpersing en zwendel, gesitueerd in een roerig New York. 'Harlem Shuffle' van Colson Whitehead gaat over Ray Carney, een beschaafde meubelverkooper die voor zijn klanten en burens in 125th Street een fatsoenlijk leven probeert te leiden. Zijn vrouw is in verwachting van hun tweede kind, en ook al wonen ze in een krap appartement te dicht bij het metrospoor: hij heeft veel bereikt, hij is tevreden. Wat weinig mensen weten, is dat Ray afkomstig is uit een geslacht van benedeleden en boeven, en dat zijn brave burgersbestaan barsten begint te vertonen. Barsten die steeds groter worden dankzij zijn louche, onfortuinlijke neef Freddie, die dankbaar gebruikmaakt van Rays keurige façade – en hem ondertussen steeds dieper de Harlemse onderwereld in sleurt. Terwijl Ray worstelt met zijn dubbelleven begint hij steeds duidelijker in te zien wie de touwtjes in handen heeft in Harlem. Lukt het Ray om hier zonder kleerscheuren uit te komen – om zijn neef te redden, zijn deel van de winst te pakken en tegelijkertijd zijn reputatie hoog te houden?

Gifts Jun 19 2022 Gifts: A Study in Comparative Law is the first broad-based study of the law governing the giving and revocation of gifts ever attempted. Gift-giving is everywhere governed by social and customary norms before it encounters the law and the giving of gifts takes place largely outside of the marketplace. As a result of these two characteristics, the law of gifts provides an optimal lens through which to examine how different legal systems engage with social practice. The law of gifts is well-developed both in the civil and the common laws. Richard Hyland's study provides an excellent view of the ways in which different civil and common law jurisdictions confront common issues. The legal systems discussed include principally, in the common law, those of Great Britain, the United States, and India, and, in the civil law, the private law systems of Belgium and France, Germany, Italy, and Spain. Professor Hyland also serves a critique of the dominant method in the field, which is a form of functionalism based on what is called the praesumptio similitudinis, namely the axiom that, once legal doctrine is stripped away, developed legal systems tend to reach similar practical results. His study demonstrates, to the contrary, that legal systems actually differ, not only in their approach and conceptual structure, but just as much in the results.

The Gift Jun 07 2021 Phillip has a lot on his mind. At home, in his unnecessarily large, excessively expensive house, he is attempting to become a Taoist master of love with his wife, Alice, but his quest is forever being interrupted by the requests of his twin daughters -- "Can we have a pony, please?"; "We want to go to boarding school." At work, in his shed/office at the bottom of the garden, between countless games of Minesweeper and FreeCell, Phillip is trying to pay the mortgage by writing the instruction manuals to Korean bread-making machines. And at parties where he is concerned that he is not taken seriously -- he is variously mistaken as a waiter and a rhinoplastic surgeon -- Phillip tells the world he is, in fact, a screenwriter. Above all, Phillip is obsessing about his best friends, Barry and Sean. They are rich, more successful, and, most worryingly, they give great presents. Their gifts are always exquisite -- a full set of Italian crockery, a handmade corkscrew from Venice; they give them on birthdays, at parties, and quite often for no reason whatsoever; and, increasingly, these presents break all bounds of generosity. They are gifts that hurt a man's pride. And they can never be matched. Which doesn't mean Phillip won't try. . . .
